Verse 1

G
Today's the day, take off my trainin' wheels, and ride my bike down that gravel hill,
C G
On Delaware Street. I've been practicin' all week.
G
Got my helmet on and sunglasses, too. Those washboards are brutal they will make you crash,
C G
On Delaware Street. Better watch my top speed.

Chorus 1

D7 C7 G
I've got my brother's baseball cards in the spokes, I'm ready to go.
D7 C7 G
On my way to the Petersen's house, my folks they don't even know.

Verse 2

G
Now halfway down that legendary hill, my handlebars shake and I take a spill,
C G
On Delaware Street. Scrape my elbows and my knees.
G
And who should come along but Shari Brandt. She waves at me I try to smile but I can't.
C G
She lives on Delaware Street, just like me.

Chorus 2

D7 C7 G
She held my hand at recess, but that's as far as it goes.
D7 C7 G
She says, "We're incompatible," but that's a word I don't even know! (Talk about it!)
