

Fruit Snack Monster

from THE FLOOR IS LAWA
by Mr. S & The Sandbox Band

Key: C Capo: 2nd Fret

Intro: C G C

Verse 1

 C G F C
Pack me up in the car, and let's head to the grocery store.
 C F G C
Mama says we're all outta treats and we need some more.
 C C/E F G C-C/B-Am E7 F
'Cause Daddy ate all the fruit snacks in one si---i---tting, it's fitting,
 G7 C G C
That Mama's gonna settle the score.

Chorus 1

 Am E7 F G
She's buyin' oatmeal and flax seed, and everything in between.
Am E7 F G7
Organic produce, but what about little old me?
 G7 G7 G7 C G C
She's in the cookie aisle. I start to smile. She's buyin' a treat that's just for me!

Piano Interlude: C F G C-G-C F G7 C-G-C

Verse 2

 C G F C
Shadows flash in the hall in the middle of the night.
 C F G C
Daddy peaks his head in my room and then he's outta sight.
 C C/E F G C C/B-Am E7 F
He tiptoes down the stairs, he's up to no good, creepin' in the kitchen.
 G7 C G C
He's back for a midnight snack.

Verse 3

 C G F C
I could stop him if I tried but the kitchen's so very far,
 C F G C
So I scream at the top of my lungs to sound the alarm.
 C C/E F G C C/B Am E7 F
Mama sprints down the stairs, and Daddy's got chocolate all over his face, what a disgrace,
 G7 C G C
Stealin' cookies from the cookie jar.

Chorus 2

And Mama says, "There's no excuse, I refuse to let this go again,"
"Your diet starts tomorrow, or you can find another bed!"
Then Daddy tries his puppy eyes. It works on Mama every time.

Ending

I think my Dad might be a cookie monster,
And if Mom keeps this up I think it's gonna cost her,
'Cause she says, "There'll be a little less of Daddy to love."
And even though he eats my cookies, I know he loves me.
I can tell every time by the way that he hugs me, yeah.
Me and Daddy, well, we fit like a glove.